

HSC EVENT LIABILITY RELEASE FORM

The HomeSchool Association of California:

- ▲ Honors the diversity of homeschoolers,
- ▲ supports and promotes the entire spectrum of homeschooling,
- ▲ provides information,
- ▲ monitors and influences legislation,
- ▲ offers opportunities for families to get together,
- ▲ empowers families to make the choices that respect the rights, needs, and aspirations of their children.

HSC welcomes anyone with an interest in homeschooling.

HSC offers a variety of family-oriented events for homeschoolers of all ages. To help encourage community and a safe and respectful atmosphere, please discuss with your family the responsibility of being in a group that consists of a variety of ages -- young children, teens and adults. Our individual actions reflect not only on HSC, but also on all homeschoolers. We look forward to a fun and friendly event.

HSC members often takes photos during the conference, campouts, and other events. These photos may be used on HSC's website, on related websites, and in publications. If you don't want your photo taken and possibly published, please let the photographer know.

Please sign the following and return to the event coordinator. This must be signed by everyone attending who is 18 years or older and by parents of all minors attending.

I have read and understand the foregoing statements. I release the HomeSchool Association of California and all of their agents or assigns from liability for injury of any nature, property damage or wrongful death that may occur as a result of my family's participation in this event.
